

LIFE Institute

The LIFE Institute delivers high-quality educational programs for older adults covering a wide variety of subjects in the Arts, Humanities, Sciences, Technology and Contemporary Issues. Affiliated with Ryerson University, many programs are led by volunteers to promote inclusive life-long learning.

Executive Director

THE LIFE INSTITUTE

With an ambitious vision to become the recognized leader in older adult learning, the LIFE Institute seeks an experienced executive to deliver the Institute's mandate. Reporting to the Board, the Executive Director will lead the planning, program delivery, operations and financial well being of the organization. Other responsibilities include: development and delivery of the course roster; coordination and promotion of volunteerism; and, the delivery of marketing and communications efforts.

Ideally, you are a seasoned non-for-profit executive with a track record of successfully working with staff, members, volunteers and other key stakeholders to deliver results. You also have proven leadership skills and strategic capabilities to translate high level objectives into operational goals. Your years of experience are augmented by an entrepreneurial spirit, strong ethical approach, and hands-on action orientation.

To express your interest, please forward a cover letter and resume to HR Associates at life@hrassociates.ca or contact Sienna DiGiuseppe at 416-237-1500 x231. Applications are due by May 29, 2017.
