

PSW's NEEDED!

PART-TIME PERMANENT | EVENINGS & WEEKENDS | TRAVEL REQUIRED

$19.25 PER HOUR

PACE Independent Living is seeking Personal Support Workers (PSW) to support clients with the tasks involved in daily living. This position follows a homecare/mobile model, where the PSW travels to and from clients' homes, schools or workplaces in the city of Toronto to provide services.

Services are provided within the clients' location and may include personal care (bathing, bowel/bladder assistance), dressing and undressing, meal preparations, or light housekeeping. You can expect to work independently, manage multiple client bookings and travel throughout the city to meet the clients' scheduled needs. Flexibility is key in this role, as is a positive attitude and willingness to support clients' lifestyles and to accept direction from clients.

Qualifications

- Personal Support Worker Certificate
- Ability to work independently and under the direction of the client
- Experience working with persons with disabilities and in a position of trust
- Excellent communication skills
- Physical ability to lift and transfer clients
- Ability to travel within Toronto area, access to a vehicle is an asset
- If successful, incumbent must complete a medical form and have a valid Police Reference Check (Vulnerable Persons)

How to Apply: Please submit your cover letter and resume to PACE@hrassociates.ca by August 16th 2019. Please note that applications will be assessed on a rolling basis. For more information, please contact Gowsiga Thirunavukkarasu at 416-237-1500 x236.
